“SAILING AWAY TO NEW ADVENTURES!”

By Bev Kammer, Preschool Director/Teacher and

Diane Mahlburg, Preschool Aide (and exceptional person)

Our theme for the 2017 end-of-the-year program is “Sailing Away to New Adventures!” Some of the children that are leaving preschool this year are off and on their way to kindergarten. I am always proud of the little ones and the eagerness that they have for moving on.

This theme seems appropriate not only for the children but for myself and Mrs. Mahlburg. After my 27 years and Mrs. Mahlburg's 17 years at St. Augustine, we are leaving this wonderful program and school. It is time to turn the reins over to a new teacher and aide. Nothing can or will replace the experience I had of being a preschool teacher. To work with, inspire, nurture, guide, and teach young children has been one of my proudest accomplishments. These children have inspired and guided me to learn more about early childhood and be a person that creates a loving, secure, and nurturing environment for young children to blossom and grow.

It has been a great joy and a real adventure to teach these many years at St. Augustine Preschool. I have met many wonderful parents and lovely children in my time here. I have stayed in contact with some, and it is always a delight when former students stop by for a visit! To have them remember these early memories of preschool makes me very happy.

To all of those parents who entrusted their children to the care of St. Augustine Preschool, Mrs. Mahlburg and I would like to thank you. Please know that it was a privilege and a pleasure to be a part of the lives of your little ones; they are “forever young” in our hearts and minds. Blessing to you and a huge thank you.
